

Dear Sir/madam

It is with much enthusiasm that I am writing to recommend the services of Wetpaint as a creative advertising agency.

We have been using Wetpaint for all our digital, online, creative, above the line as well as below the line needs as a new entrant in the Short-Term Insurance arena, and we are more than satisfied with their services. They do excellent work, meet their deadlines and targets and are always prepared to go the extra mile for us.

We receive dedicated and personal service delivery from Wetpaint, and I am more than happy to recommend them to anyone that needs to contract with them.

Please feel free to contact me should you need any further recommendation.

Kind regards

Yolanda Patiniotis
Head of Marketing: Short-Term Insurance
